Due to Governor Whitmer's Executive Order 2020-9, the City of St. Clair Shores is closing buildings to help stop the spread of COVID-19. As a result, the St. Clair Shores Public Library is closed as of 3:00 p.m. Monday, March 16, 2020, until further notice. Library personnel are currently available to take your phone calls Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. through 5:00 p.m., 586-771-9020.

We hope the following information will be helpful to you regarding library services and your library account.

- St. Clair Shores Public Library materials, with a March due date, have been extended to April 8. This extension may not apply to other libraries materials.
- The book drop is open 24/7 to receive your returned items.
- Patrons will not lose their place in line for any items currently on hold. Holds can continue to be placed through the library's website, www.scslibrary.org or by calling the library at 586-771-9020, Monday through Friday, from 9:00 a.m. through 5:00 p.m.
- The Friends of the Library are not accepting donations during this time. Please do not place donations in the book drop.
- Patrons are encouraged to visit the Library's website www.scslibrary.org in order to access their accounts remotely and review current checkouts, attempt to renew items, place items on hold and pay by credit card for fines and fees. Patrons can also access our many online resources via our website. In most cases a valid library card is needed to access resources such as:

Tutor.com: Online tutors assist students with homework help

Overdrive: e-books and audiobooks

RB Digital: e-magazines

Freegal: free music streaming and downloads

Learning Express: test preparation

- Patrons can stay informed by visiting the following websites:

Michigan.gov/Coronavirus

CDC.gov/Coronavirus

We will continue to share updates regarding changes in the Library schedule and services as a result of COVID-19. For questions or concerns, please visit the Library's website at www.scslibrary.org or call us at 586-771-9020.
